VOLUNTARY PRODUCT RECALL: BALL PARK® BEEF FRANKS CONTAINING USE BY MAY 07 09 P8740A ONLY

DOWNERS GROVE, Ill. (March 25, 2009) – Ball Park is voluntarily recalling a partial production run of the following product as a precautionary measure as the product may contain cheese, an undeclared milk allergen, posing a potential health risk to milk-allergic individuals. The product may also contain undeclared poultry and pork. This recall affects 1,728 pounds of product and is due to an error in packaging in which Ball Park Cheese Franks were packaged in Ball Park Beef Frank packaging.

The item included in the voluntary recall is part of a partial production run only for Ball Park Beef Franks with the UPC CODE 5450010002 and USE BY May 07 09 P8740A printed on the back of the packaging.

No other Ball Park branded products are affected by this voluntary recall. Only packages labeled as Ball Park Beef Franks with UPC CODE 5450010002 and USE BY May 07 09 P8740A printed on the back of the packaging are part of this recall.

Ball Park has received no reports of illnesses.

This recall is being conducted in conjunction with the Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS).

Consumers may return affected product to the store where it was purchased for a full refund. Consumers who may have questions or concerns should call the special Ball Park Beef Frank recall toll-free consumer line at 1.888.891.6100. The consumer line is available from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Central Time, Monday through Friday.
